PROHIBITIVE ODDS Too Late in the Day.

FAVORITES WIN AT

Marian Casey, favorite, won the big stake event at Buena Vista before the Saturday afternoon. It was a pretty race in which Casey won by her gamerace in which Casey won by ner game-ness. Off last on a poor start the pony gradually pushed to the front and in the stretch passed Marchmonet and Lena Lech, who finished in the order named. Besides Casey, three favorites won, but the books as usual laid prohibitive odds and the betting was not as heavy as usual. Casey was 2 to 1 in a field of eight horses and Marchmonet second choice at 3 to 2 'Lech, who took third, was 10 to 1.

was 10 to 1.

Presiding Judge F. St. D. Skinner, who overlooked a number of chances during the meet to investigate foul riding. Is seen making overlooked a number of chances during the meet to investigate foul riding. Is now making a grand stand play. He ruled Jockey Shriher off the track for the rast of the meet now that it is practically over for his foul ride on Patterson last Wednesday. Suriner will ship to Cheyenne with the stable he has been riding for tomorrow. Jockey Kent was also ruled off Friday by Judge Skinner for foul riding of July 11 when he rode two foul races. Kent immediately shipped to Frontier track with the owner he is riding for. The suspension was made to cover up some of the rank reversal in form which has been allowed during the entire meet.

In the first event of five furlongs Annie Wells, at 8 to 5, won from the field. The second race went to Tugboat at 8 to 5. Patterson ridden by Wrispen won the fourth race at 11 to 2, beating Del Cruzador, 9 to 2. Shriner's foul ride of Patterson the other day fooled the public Saturday when the horse was given a fair show without being pulled.

In the last two races the books cleaned up the money and evened things up for the favorites winning in the other events. Round and Round won the one ond a half mile race at 2 to 5. Flora Riley was the heaviest played horse and came second. Lewiston won the last race at 5 to 1.

MAY HOLD FALL MEET.

Lexington. Ky., July 18—A call has been issued for a special meeting of the board of directors of the Kentucky Racing association to be held here July 21 to decide whether a fall meeting shall be held in conjunction with those of Church-ill Downs and Latonia:

It is said the decision hinges on the way the directors look at the situation in the east.

With New York's last stringent law going into effect Sept. 1, horsemen here say there is no reason why a meeting here should not be a success.

If the races are held, they will be either late in September or early in November.

KEENE AND HILDRETH FIGHTING FOR FIRST HONORS

New York. July 18.—James R. Keene and S. C. Hildreth are fighting along neck and neck for the honor of heading the list of winning owners for the season. Including the races run en Saturday, less than $1,000 separated the two men. Mr. Hildreth is at the top with a total of $41,000, having passed Mr. Keene early last week, thanks largely to Dalmatian, which won the Sea Gate stakes on Wednesday and the Iroquois stakes on Friday. August Belmont is a close third with $35,000 in round numbers to his credit.

, is fourth on the list with about $31,000.

SHERIFF STOPS GAME.

Elmira, N. Y. July 17.—The New York State league game between Elmira and Syracuse was stopped today by Sheriff Day, who arrested four of the local players on the charge of violating the law against Sunday baseball.

A sacred concert preceded the ball game. Admission was charged to this, and when it was concluded the announcement was made that the gate would be opened for five minutes to allow any one who so wished to leave the ground. When the five minutes were up the gate was closed and an attempt made to piny the game. William Mack went into the pitcher's box and Stephen O'Neil took his place behind the bat. As soon as Mack had threen the first ball. Sheriff Day arrested him and the catcher. James Nagle and John Clougher, the regular battery, were sent in, and as soon as a ball was thrown, they too, were also placed under arrest. No further attempt was made to play the game. # MOUNT PLEASANT DOES SOME BOOSTING

Her Baseball Team and Brass Band Go on Successful Tour.

Last week witnessed a baseball and musical festival through Sanpete and Sevier countles, which was a decided departure for the people of these districts The idea had its birth in the fertile minds of several people who wanted to see Mt. Pleasant "boosted," in accordance with the tactics of the day. They thereupon got the fine bruss band of the town together and formed a temporary partnership with its crack baseball team. The two sent out an advance agent after the most approved style of theatrical enterprises, and booked dates for a week, the afterpeons tor baseball, and the evenings for concert and dances in and enterprises, and booked dates for a week, the afternoons for baseball, and the evenings for concert and dances in the neighboring towns.

The tour lasted from Monday, the 11th, to Saturday, the 18th, and was a grand success, socially, artistically and financially. At each place the band, which a member of The News staff heard, did some fine work, especially so when it is considered that most of the boys are self-taught. The dances that followed the free concerts were invariably thronged. The Mt. Pleasant baseball club gave a strong account of itself, coming out victorious in four out of six games. The results were as follows:

At Monroe, Mt. Pleasant team, 12; Monroe team, 5.

At Salina, Mt. Pleasant, 4; Salina, 3. At Manti, Mt. Pleasant, 13; Manti, 2. At Ephraim, Mt. Preasant, 2; Ephraim

At Ephraim, Mt. Preasent, 2; Ephraim. 7.
At Edward there was a foot race in the evening between Arthur Anderson of Ephraim and William Averett of Mt. Pleasant, the Ephraim man coming out winner. The Mt. Pleasant boys expressed themselevs as delighted with the trip, though they claim that they did not receive satisfactory treatment from the umpire in Richfield. L. T. Nelson is manager of the Mt. Pleasant band; William C. Anderson, leaser; while the baseball toam is made up as follows:

Batteries, Morley and Bailey, Peterson and Halstrom; Wm. Hansen, Irving Stanfield, Thorpe, Vern Gunderson, Elmer Johnson, Summitt Nicholson, J. E. Gunderson.
